Date & Time: 04-12-2017 to 05-12-2017 3 PM -5 PM

ICT Skill Development programme on “ADVANCED EXCEL CONTENT ” was organized by the Computer Science Department. to the B.Com final year students. Having proficiency in Excel can help students stand out in the job market and open up career opportunities in finance, accounting, marketing, data analysis, and many other fields. Excel is a versatile tool that can be used to solve a wide range of problems. Learning advanced Excel techniques can help students develop problem-solving skills and enhance their ability to think critically. Advanced Excel skills can be useful for managing personal finances, including budgeting, tracking expenses, and analyzing investment options. This can help students make informed financial decisions and achieve financial goals.
